Have you ever noticed the communion table in the People of Hope Center? If not, please take note of it the next time you visit Bethel. Did you know it was handmade by four people connected to Bethel? The story behind the communion table is that at one time we worshipped in both the Historic Sanctuary and the People of Hope Center so we had to carry the communion table back and forth between the two buildings. So it was decided to make another communion table. Anytime the church needs something made out of wood the person that is usually called is Jerry Jenkins. Jerry learned his wood crafting skills when he was a teenager in Ridgeway, Virginia working in a cabinet shop. The story behind how Jerry got that job is delightful. Jerry was in the 7th grade and his class was going on a field trip to Washington DC. The cost of the trip was $16.50. Jerry's family couldn't afford the $16.50 so his 7th grade teacher made him a deal. If Jerry agreed to work in her husband's cabinet shop for four Saturdays they would pay for the field trip. Jerry agreed and not only did he get to go on that field trip, but Jerry continued working at the shop all through high school and college! That job helped put Jerry through school. Jerry has put those woodworking skills to good use over the years building furniture for his home and our church. So it was natural that we called upon him to build the communion table. To help with the table Jerry called upon another master craftsman, Wray Brown. The wood for the table was donated by Jason Moore, who has his own portable sawmill. As construction progressed it came time to do the lettering on the apron of the table, "In Remembrance of Me." This is intricate work. Thought was given to stencil the letters and hand carve them with a chisel, but they knew this would be difficult to produce a nice, even result. Then they remembered that Barbara Bell, another Bethel member, has a son named Michael who owns a CNC machine. CNC stands for Computer Numerically Controlled and his CNC machine will cut the letters of any font and size with delicate precision. Michael gladly helped with the project. With the lettering complete, the apron was glued on to the table, then it was taken to Wray's shop for finishing.

The story of our communion table reminds me of the story of the construction of the Sanctuary found in Exodus 36:1-2. "The Lord has gifted Bezalel, Oholiab, and the other skilled craftsmen with wisdom and ability to perform any task involved in building the sanctuary."

Let them construct and furnish the Tabernacle, just as the Lord has commanded." ² So Moses summoned Bezalel and Oholiab and all the others who were specially gifted by the Lord and were eager to get to work." In the same way, the Lord has gifted Jerry, Wray, Jason and Michael with some very special construction skills and they were "eager to get to work" on the communion table and the table means something to these craftsmen. Jerry told me, "It gives me great satisfaction to make something for the glory of God. Using the talents the Lord gave me to honor Him is my way of service." Wray echoed Jerry's comments and added that, "It's refreshing to work with people who have high standards and values." Jason has a unique take about the table. He says, "The oak wood could have been used as firewood or even rotted away, but with some work and in the right hands it has become a beautiful piece that celebrates Jesus. That's kind of like us. Sometimes we stop pursuing God and our soul begins to rot, but with work, pursuing Him, praying, reading the bible, we are shaped by his hands into something beautiful that honors him."

I tell this story for a couple of reasons. First, let us recognize and thank Jerry, Wray, Jason and Michael for their time and effort. They have constructed a beautiful table for us to gather around to share communion with Christ. Second, let us thank the Lord for the skills that he gave these gentlemen. All credit and glory go to the Lord. Third, notice in the Exodus scripture that it says "they were eager to go to work." My question for us to consider is what skills has God gifted you and where are you eager to work in His Kingdom? I believe God has given each one of us a unique set of skills that can and should be used to bless others and further the work of Christ's Kingdom. As we use our God given talents let us remember that all we do should be done, "In Remembrance of Him." The Apostle Paul said it best in Colossians 3:23, "Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord." Dear Lord, please help each one of us to eagerly use the skills you've given us to advance your Kingdom and bless others. We thank you Lord for the wood working skills that you've given to Jerry, Wray, Jason and Michael. Please bless them and their families. Please bless each one of us who call Bethel Baptist Church home. We love you Lord, help us to love each other and our world. In Christ name we pray, AMEN!

This study is entitled "Heaven Can't Wait—Living the Good Life Now" by Dr. Robert Jeffress and is based on the book of Colossians. If you want to experience the "good life" now while waiting for Heaven, this study is for you. We will talk about: What do you think about most often? What are you seeking most earnestly? and What do you love most dearly? The group will meet each Tuesday morning at 11 a.m. in the Salt and Light classroom, right off the parlor. We would love to have you join us for study and fellowship.

A Note From Your Associate Pastor and Music Minister by Gayle Taylor

"When Love Hurts: High School/College Dating and Abusive Relationships"

Dating should be a time of fun... a time to go to the movies... a time to hang out with other friends... a time to attend a concert... and a time to navigate the complexity of relationship building. Unfortunately, dating can sometimes lead to a time of crisis, a crisis in which young women (and men) are pulled into a scenario where love becomes hurtful and abusive. In this same scenario, the parents of these young people begin the painful cycle of suspicion, discovery, panic, ultimatums, and helplessness. The statistics are staggering for both high school and college students:

High School

- One in three adolescents in the U.S. is a victim of physical, sexual, emotional or verbal abuse from a dating partner, a figure that far exceeds rates of other types of youth violence.
- One in 10 high school students has been purposefully hit, slapped or physically hurt by a boyfriend or girlfriend.
- Girls and young women between the ages of 16 and 24 experience the highest rate of intimate partner violence — almost triple the national average.
- Among female victims of intimate partner violence, 94% of those age 16-19 and 70% of those age 20-24 were victimized by a current or former boyfriend or girlfriend.

College

- Nearly half (43%) of dating college women report experiencing violent and abusive dating behaviors.
- College students are not equipped to deal with dating abuse — 57% say it is difficult to identify and 58% say they don't know how to help someone who's experiencing it.
- One in three (36%) dating college students has given a dating partner their computer, online access, email or social network passwords and these students are more likely to experience digital dating abuse. (Source: loveisrespect.org)
 - ◆ How do you recognize an abusive relationship in a teen's relationship?
 - ◆ What can you do when an abusive relationship in a teen's relationship is confirmed?
 - ◆ How can a teen recover from and avoid a further abusive relationship?

You can learn answers to these questions and more at a seminar entitled "When It Hits Home" on March 31, at 6:30 p.m. The guest speaker is Lindsay Cassaday, Coordinator for the Chesterfield Domestic and Sexual Violence Resource Center. Please meet in the parlor. Light refreshments will be provided.

What's Happening in March

When some people hear the word "worship," they think of church buildings, or hymns, or special rituals. To some people, worship sounds pretty boring. But that's not at all how God talks about worship! In the pages of Scripture, we discover that worship is so much bigger than what happens at church — and it's definitely not boring. Worship is a party! And it's a party we're all invited to attend. So come celebrate with us as we explore awesome ways to celebrate God!

Book Club, May 3

The next book club meeting is May 3 after church and the group will discuss Where the Crawdads Sing by Delia Owens. Please meet in Gayle Taylor's office and bring a bag lunch. Drinks and dessert will be provided. If you need a copy of the book, please contact Gayle Taylor.

Brotherhood Breakfast March 29, 8:45 a.m.

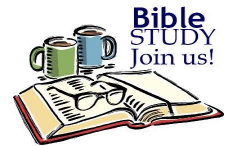

Breakfast is at 8:45 a.m. in the People of Hope Center. Join us at 7 a.m. if you would like to help prepare this meal. Our menu will be "Stancakes," along with Bruce's potato sausage casserole, Elaine's apples and sausage and eggs. A basket will be available to place donations in toward the meal.

Wednesday Night Programs in March

March 3—Ministry & Mission Celebration Mtg & Dinner—6:30 p.m.

March 25—Sacred Circle—6:30 p.m.

Christ in the Passover April 2, at 6:30 p.m.

Did you ever wonder why or how our Christian tradition of Communion started? First Corinthians 11:26 says, "For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes." Why is it so important to "eat this bread" and "drink from the cup"? As Christians, our roots are undeniably Jewish. Our faith is steeped with Jewish traditions. As the years have progressed the significance and meanings of these traditions have dulled for many. One of these traditions is Passover, or Pesach in the Hebrew.

David Liebman with Jews for Jesus will join us again on April 2, at 6:30 p.m. to guide us through the Passover Seder experience. In Aramaic, seder means "order", while in Hebrew it means "prayer book". Step by step we will learn about the Haggadah, matzah and the kiddush. David will also share with us why the Passover was commanded in the Old Testament; why it was observed by Jesus and his disciples and why it is important to observe today.

Many Thanks

Dear Bethel Family,
Words cannot express enough our gratitude to all of you for your visits, flowers, cards, calls and help during the difficult time we had over the loss of our beloved brother, Steve. We could feel your love and prayers lifting us up and we are so thankful to be a part of Bethel's family.

Fondly, Scott, Kim and Olivia Meyerhoffer

Dear Bethel Family,
Thank you so much for your prayers, beautiful cards, calls, visits, goodies and the beautiful basket of violets I received after my surgery. Recovery is slow, however, all your acts of kindness and love have made my recovery better. Your thoughtfulness and kindness touched my heart and will always be remembered. I am so thankful to be a part of such a caring and loving church family.

Love, Pat Reynolds

Dear Bethel Church Family,
Thank you for all of your help with my book drive. The soldiers seemed really excited to see boxes full of books they picked out. None of this could have been possible without your efforts! Part of my job as a leader is to take care of my soldiers, both on and off the field. These books will not only brighten their day today but also encourage them to further their education and let them know there are people back home who truly care.
Thank you for helping me give back to my soldiers.

Love, Meredith Taylor Hodges

Dear Bethel Church Family,
Thanks for all the prayers, cards and flowers during my son John's recent illness and passing. Thanks to all who helped make his memorial service a wonderful tribute to his life.

Bethel Care Team

Already we are seeing the beginnings of a new season, spring is just around the corner and with it comes the beautiful spring bulbs showing off their pretty little flowers, the trees will be in full bloom and the grass will be turning green again. All the signs of a season of the year that makes us happy. This is true within ourselves as we turn our thoughts to the warmer weather and all the things that we plan to do in our gardens and sprucing up around our homes. In life it's much the same, sometimes we need a fresh new look into ourselves and freshen up our prayer lives, and our commitments to the organizations that we have in church and our community and make ourselves get busy and do something a little extra in life.

We have been faithful in taking meals to ones who needed them in the past couple of months, we have remembered our special ones with a small gift and card for Valentine's day and have supported those who have had loss in their family during this past month. It never gets old to help one another and bless one another with love and support and prayer.

We have surely been blessed to have many new members to join us at Bethel and in time to come there might be a way that some of them will find that they would like to help in our little ministry. Remember it's springtime now and the Lord has blessed us to enjoy another one. Let us now prepare ourselves for the Easter season that will be upon us soon.

God bless us all as we reach out in faith to do his will.

Shirley Lewis/Team Lead

Library News

The library is humming along nicely. We have been through the subjects of winter, Valentine's Day, Ground Hog Day and many other things the children have enjoyed reading about. Books have no end to what we can learn. We do have something new in the library and it's not a book. It is a verse of scripture from Psalms. This verse is very special to me. It has been placed on the library wall. We had a very wonderful secretary at Bethel years ago, her name was Peggy Salle'. This verse is dedicated to her. I would come in on Wednesdays grumbling. I do that very well. Peggy would quote this verse to me. I really miss my friend. I would like to thank Cindy and Doug Wight for putting the scripture on the wall. I hope you will take time to come by and see this special verse. The library will be open on March 8th right after church. Come find a good book to read and learn about the Bethel library.

By Carter Cosgrove
Preschool Director

March is roaring in like a lion and with it the crazy weather! Our Bethel Preschool children are having trouble deciding how to dress for school because one day it is warm and the next day it is cold. We are hoping the Leprechauns will bring Spring to us soon!

Open registration began February 1st for the 2020/2021 school year for our church families and students of the preschool. Registration became open to the public on February 14th. We are steadily receiving registrations making our new school year look very strong. If you know of anyone who is looking for a preschool, please be sure to mention us. Spots are filling up fast!

The preschool always likes to honor our parents so we will be having a special night planned for our Dads' and Dad – like figures. Our annual Dads' night will be held on Thursday, March 5th from 7 p.m. – 8 p.m. Each class will be doing a special presentation for the men along with a craft. Refreshments will follow in the Parlor.

Just a reminder that the Preschool will be having their monthly fundraiser at Chick-fil-A on Wednesday March 18th from 5 p.m. – 8 p.m. Please come out for good food and fun while supporting the Preschool. Don't forget to mention "Spirit Night"!

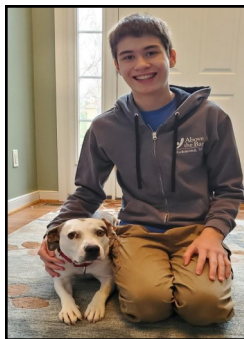

To help our rising kindergartners get acclimated to a huge change in their lives, the preschool has scheduled a special field trip to Flat Rock Elementary School on Wednesday, March 18th via a Powhatan County School bus. This exciting trip will be to tour the school and experience a real Kindergarten classroom.

Another fun event scheduled for March is our annual spring pictures. Michelle Proctor from Michelle Proctor Photography will be taking spring pictures with our preschoolers on Thursday, March 19th. The kids get so excited to get all dressed up and smile for the camera!

As always, my staff and I would like to thank you again for all the support you give to the Preschool. You are the reason we are the program we are today!

Student Spotlight for March

Meet Cody Loving! Cody has been homeschooled ever since he was in fourth grade and is now a sophomore at age fifteen. Before he was homeschooled he attended Montessori. He strives to attend college and become an engineer. He did gymnastics for eleven years and was the state champion, regional champion on several events, and a national qualifier on the regional team. Since he has moved on from his gymnastics career, he continues to stay active by participating in rock climbing and playing airsoft. He studies classical guitar too. He loves preparing the church for events that are hosted at the church such as Brotherhood Breakfast or VBS. When he is hanging out with the youth group, he finds pleasure in gathering together to glorify God's name in whatever activity the group decides to do. Make sure you take a second to say "hello" to Cody!
