On July 2, 2011 Jane Ruehrwein was sitting in her parked car in Buffalo, NY when she was violently rear ended. The police officer that responded to the accident thought Jane was dead. Blessedly, she survived the accident, but it left her disabled. She had severe whiplash, injuries to her hips, liver and a brain tumor. After the accident, Jane decided to move to Powhatan to be close to her daughter, who could help her with her daily needs. Jane views her move to Powhatan as a miracle. She was able to get a great deal on a house that was in foreclosure and that house was located next door to her daughter. Jane needed an operation for her brain tumor, which required a Gamma Knife procedure. Richmond is one of only three cities on the East Coast that has a Gamma Knife Center. Jane said, "What are the odds that I buy a house that is next door to my daughter and it is only 12 miles away from the place where they could operate on my tumor? God had his hand on me and I've seen so many miracles along the way. Everything is in God's timing. I feel like I rest in the palm of God's hand. He's helped to heal me to the point where I can serve in church and civic clubs."

Jane has been serving at Bethel for several years now. She really enjoys singing in our Christmas Cantata. If you haven't had a chance to meet Jane, allow me to share a few details. She was raised outside of Buffalo NY and earned a dental hygienist degree at Erie Community College. She then moved to Denver to finish her undergraduate degree at Colorado University at Boulder. Then she studied at the Colorado School of Mines, which is a mining and engineering school. She then went to the University of Iowa School of Dentistry and that's where she met her husband Bob who is also a dentist. Bob serves in the US Navy as a dentist. He is scheduled to leave the Navy in August of this year. Jane and Bob have four children and they live in the Flat Rock area of Powhatan.

Jane and Bob Ruehrwein

One of the things that I appreciate about Jane is her resilience and her perspective on life and faith. It's a perspective that was born from tragedies. Jane's first husband was a pilot and he was tragically killed at 29 years old in a hang glider accident. Jane had a four year old child at the time of her first husband's death. Jane said, "One minute I'm talking to my husband and telling him how much I love him and a few hours later the police are knocking at my door. Obviously, that affected me, but I couldn't let it define me. My mother-in-law lost her son and when he died, she lost her joy and it never returned. She didn't smile again and she passed away shortly after he died." Jane has learned from the tragedies she's faced. She says, "These are the 'big storms' that knock you off your feet. It's cataclysmic, but God comes along and puts a net under you and will carry you through it. In my china cabinet I keep a copy of the "Footprints" poem. It reminds me of the places in life where there is only one set of footprints. When I see those single set of footprints I know that God didn't leave me, he carried me. I know God is with me and every day is a new day, a gift from the Lord. I have hope and I had this hope from the beginning when the doctors were telling me bad things about my body. I've always had hope. With everything I've been through, I've found the best treatment for depression is to rely on God and give back to other people." Jane certainly practices what she preaches. On December 11, 2021, she was installed as the President of the Powhatan Ruritan Club. The Ruritan's are a community civic group. The name Ruritan is a combination of the Latin words for open country,

Jane installed as president of Powhatan Ruritan

"ruri", and small town, "tan." It means rural and small town life. Jane shared with me that much of the charitable work of the Ruritan Club is "Gospel work." For example, they support Madeline's House, Hunters for the Hungry, Powhatan Christmas Mother, Lonesome Dove Equestrian Center for injured veterans, Powhatan Free Clinic, and Meals on Wheels, just to name a few. Jane said, "I feel giving back is crucial for the success of our community. I like it because it's not overwhelming. You can work at your own pace and do what you can do and then I just love meeting new people in the community." Jane attended the Ruritan National convention in January and she left that convention with a conviction. She said, "Coming together is the beginning, staying together is a process, working together is success. We're not islands. I think the churches, and community organizations can work together for the success of the

A Note From Your Worship
Pastor by Gayle Taylor

"March to the Beat of Your Inner Drum" by Gayle Taylor

In his book Walden, Henry David Thoreau writes, "If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away."

Sometimes, it is difficult to sort out the dreams that we have inside of us or to have the courage to follow our individual course. This can result in an inability to make sense of the direction that we would like to take. That is where a personal coach can help. A personal coach can help guide someone to recognize solutions to a problem or to imagine possibilities that lead down a more fulfilling path, whether that pertains to issues around relationships or career choices. I have been coached and have found it to be liberating and helpful in making decisions. I also have experience in offering coaching. Currently, I am participating with the BGAV (Baptist General Association of Virginia) as a personal coach in the Kairos Leadership Ministry program. Each month, I coach a university student to provide support as the student works through spiritual/personal issues. While obtaining certificates through the Coach Approach Ministry Program, I also have coached others by in-person as well as by Zoom meetings. Through coaching others, I have been a partner in facilitating imagining sessions that blossomed into new plans of action.

Maybe you need help in brainstorming ways to resolve a relational issue or to discover some potential avenues in the career arena. If so, I can coach you by Zoom or by a telephone call. There is no charge for these coaching sessions. You likely will find that good coaching offers challenging questions needed to imagine new possibilities of approaching an issue. The results can be empowering. One caveat: coaching is not counseling. It is a tool to help people channel their energy into stepping "to the music" that they themselves hear (faintly perhaps) and need some guidance in discovering it.

How rewarding it is to find our way. May we thank our Lord who rejoices with us when we recognize the path that He intends for us to live out of our best selves.

"Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing."

~1 Thessalonians 5:11 (NRSV)

community. After losing my first husband I came to realize that we all have to work together." To that I say, amen.

God has certainly worked in and through Jane's life. God doesn't promise us that life will be easy or trouble free, but He does promise us the gift of His presence and Jane is very aware of God's presence in the good times, in the bad times, through all times. One of the ways that I'm aware of God's presence is by watching how God works through people, people like Jane, who live to serve Christ by serving others. Perhaps you'd like to join Jane in helping our community. If you're interested in joining the Powhatan Ruritan Club, please email Jane at jruehrwein4@gmail.com, or contact Bruce Lewis, Romy Merchant or Dave Jeter, they are members of Bethel and they also serve in the Ruritan Club. May God bless Jane and Bob Ruehrwein and may God bless Bethel Baptist Church.

Many Thanks

Dear Todd and My Bethel Family,
Wanted to say a big "thank you" to all of you who have been praying for my recovery. I am improving each day. "God's mercies are new every morning." I am so grateful for all of you and your concern and support. You are very special to me and I am truly happy my home is now at Bethel and I look forward to being strong enough to return to worship with all of you! My nurses and therapy workers are helping me too, a great deal, and of course my family has been and still is so supportive. I continue to praise our God for his people at Bethel and all you are accomplishing in His precious name. The fruit basket was a great treat for all of us. Thanks so much!

In His Strength and Love, Betty Hicks and family

Dear Bethel Church Family,
We would like to thank everyone for the beautiful basket that was given to us at Christmas. It meant so much to be remembered this way. We also want to thank Shirley Lewis for delivering it to us and the nice visit we had. We feel so blessed to be a part of such a wonderful church family.

God Bless, Bill and Jean Redmond

Thank you all for the telephone calls, cards and prayers concerning the surgery on my left hand.

Library News

I am sitting and looking out the window, it's a beautiful day. Of course your mind goes to spring, when God's world wakes up from its winter nap. I am not a winter person. Spring please come quickly.

The library will be honoring Dr. Suess the first of March. We have some great books by him. The next books for the month of March will be about spring. We will also have books about windy weather, etc. The Lion and the Lamb will be on display too. Our children will enjoy St. Patrick's Day and may talk about flying kites. Let's watch as they experience all the new adventures coming in March. Spring is on the way.

By Heather Kerns
Preschool Director

We are so ready for March, Spring, and warmer weather to come our way! This winter has been brutally cold, but our preschoolers have been great sports and haven't seemed to mind (the teachers on the other hand... have smiled through chattering teeth on the playground!). Spring promises new beginnings, and we can't wait to see what the next few months bring. It's truly hard to believe that we only have a few more months with our amazing students and families. In yet another year that was surrounded by uncertainty, we have certainly weathered the storms together.

As you know, open enrollment for the 2022-2023 school year began last month. We have been overwhelmed, in the best possible way, by the response we've had. All our preschool classes are almost completely full! We are beyond grateful to our wonderful families for recommending our little school to people in the community, as well as all of those who will be returning to Bethel again next year, for allowing us to continue doing what we love to do! We can't wait to share all the exciting things that are happening with our preschool in the future, thanks to all of your support and love.

March will be a busy month for our preschool. We are so thankful to Aleta Jenkins, who will lead our students in chapel for the remainder of the school year, beginning March 8th. We will have two STEAM days in March (one on the 3rd and the other on the 17th). In addition to that, we will take our spring pictures- both individual and class- with Noah James Photography. We will also host the First Annual Parents Spring "Break" on Friday, March 25th. We had such a wonderful turnout in December when we had our Parents Christmas Shopping Day, we've decided to do another fun Friday with our students. We will make spring crafts, play games, eat snacks, and have a wonderful morning together before we have Spring Break.

Looking ahead to the month of April, our preschool will be closed for Spring Break from April 4th-8th, our classes will learn about the true meaning of Easter and celebrate the Easter holiday with their class, and we will have our schoolwide field trip to the Richmond Metro Zoo!

I can't adequately describe what an incredible year we have had in our preschool. The love and support of the church and our preschool families has been more than I could have ever dreamed. As always, I am so appreciative to all of you for helping make our program so successful.

God Bless all of you,
Heather Kerns
Preschool Director

Bethel Care Team

Hello everyone!!!

The year 2022 is rushing on and here we are in March, the month that brings us officially into Springtime, Daylight Savings Time and we celebrate St Patrick's Day. It's a happy month, surely one that keeps us on our toes, there can be snow and there is always windy days, and there is the blessing of more sunshine and longer days. God has blessed us with "weather" that brings interest into our lives. It makes us stay inside on some days and rejoice and enjoy a nice walk on others. Whatever the day, let us rejoice and be glad in it.

I came across this Bible verse that describes our Care Team in many ways, Let me share it with you. 1 Corinthians 12:6. There are different ways the SPIRIT works. But the same God is working in all these ways and in all people. We serve in our own ways, some people are good with conversation and can with just a little visit make someone's day, others are the most wonderful cooks and can take someone in need of a good meal a real blessing. We share times of gathering together and discussing those that have other needs, maybe a lift chair or some type of medical equipment that we have stored in our church designated for things that other's no longer have a need of and can be donated or loaned for use. We have folks who will deliver those items where there is a need. What would we do without friends who will help if we just ask. I believe the message that Todd gave us one time in our service, that God wants us to ASK for whatever we need in our lives for ourselves and for others and that need will be met I want to thank those many people who are always thinking of ways to help our committee, each one of you is such a blessing. My prayer going forward is that we all continue to serve the Lord with gladness and feel the blessings of helping with service to others.

If you are aware of someone who needs our comfort and care in anyway, please let us know. We will do our best to meet that need.

Book Club News

The Book Club is reading the novel, The Ninth Hour, by Alice McDermott and recommended by the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship (CBF). Here is what CBF says about this book: "Tracing three generations of an Irish immigrant family, The Ninth Hour tells a story that is both individual and universal in its understanding of the human condition. Meditating on fairness, faith, sacrifice, duty and love, it illuminates the bonds that unite or divide us." Join us for the discussion in May. If you would like a copy of the book, please contact the church office.

Note from Our Parish Nurse

"Beloved, I pray that all may go well with you and that you may be in good health, as it goes well with your soul." (3 John 1:2)

A wise lady once stated she celebrates her birthday all month by scheduling events for her physical and mental health. Her healthy month consists of a dental exam, eye exam, physical exam, and any additional recommended tests. She then adds on a few relaxing days of fun at the beach, nature walks, trying a new restaurant with an old friend to catch up, a movie day, devotions, and meditations. What a great way to celebrate you.

Blessings, Cindy Luck
