One of my most memorable Christmases was 1998. That year was a particularly tough year for our family and especially for my mother in law, Dorothy Younce. We called her "Mama Dot." In May of 1998, her husband, Gray, died suddenly and unexpectedly. Later that year, Gray's brother was killed in an automobile accident. It truly was a year of loss and sorrow. Then came Christmas day, a day of joy and celebration, but, thanks to me, things went south in a hurry. We loaded up our Ford Explorer with our family's Christmas presents to go over to my mom and dad's house. Every year we gather on Christmas morning for a breakfast of egg and sausage casserole, ham, fruit and coffee cake, then we open presents. We have a tradition where we take turns opening presents; that's the rule and the ritual. Everyone watches as each gift is opened so that we can see everyone's reaction. It's a day of feasting, joy, and celebration. But not in 1998. On the way over to my parent's place, we stopped to pick up Mama Dot. There had been an ice storm the previous day and most of the roads were clear of ice, but there was one shady spot on our road that was still icy. I wasn't going that fast as the speed limit is 25 on that part of the road, but I hit a patch of ice, lost control of the vehicle and went into the ditch. When the car hit the ditch, it slowly rolled on its side. We ended up with the passenger side of the car facing the sky. When the car rolled, Mama Dot, who wasn't wearing a seatbelt, flew from one side of the car to the other. We could not get out of the car for several minutes. Finally, someone came and opened the passenger's side door and pulled Karen out, then pulled me out. We went to the back of the car and opened the rear door and removed Mama Dot and my daughter, Elizabeth, who was still strapped in her car seat. We were all ok, except for Mama Dot. She'd cut her head so badly that Med Flight was called. While we were waiting for Med Flight, one of our neighbors stopped by and took Elizabeth and put her in his car so she could stay warm.

Mama Dot

Med Flight finally arrived and transported Mama Dot to VCU. I watched as the helicopter flew out of sight and I thought, "What on earth have I done? Why didn't we stay home? I've ruined Christmas for everyone!" The guilt was awful. We spent the rest of Christmas day in the emergency room and after several days in the hospital Mama Dot was released and, blessedly, she suffered no long term effects from the accident. That year we ended up celebrating Christmas about a week later. True to tradition, we went around the circle and watched as we opened presents. When it came time for Mama Dot to open a present, I remember being so thankful, so grateful, that she was with us and we could enjoy that Christmas together. That year was so tough, but that Christmas was among the most memorable of my lifetime because of all that happened. The events of 1998 gave me plenty to think about during Christmas. I was reminded, in a very real way, of the preciousness of life and the gift of family. I was thankful for first responders who helped at the accident scene. I was grateful for the neighbor that helped keep Elizabeth warm. As I reflected on all these things the meaning of Christmas was brought home as it had never been before. When God sent Christ into the world, he sent love into the world and that love binds us, unites us, upholds us, and sustains us. That Christmas I saw love in action from family members, first responders, friends, neighbors, nurses, and doctors. Christ came to fill this world with God's love. I saw it most clearly in 1998. I pray we can see it clearly this year. As we journey towards Christmas, I hope we'll take some time to sit quietly and think about what Christmas means and offer God our most profound thanks for all that He's done by sending Christ into the world. I encourage us to take a moment and share with a friend or loved one how much they mean to us. Go and bless someone with the gift of Christ's love. I'd also like to invite you to join us on Christmas Eve at 5:30 in the People of Hope Center as we celebrate the birth of Christ. May you each have a wonderful and very Merry Christmas and a healthy, happy and hope filled new year and may God bless you, and may God bless Bethel Baptist Church.

Library News

One December morning I was feeling down.
All the dreary wearies were hanging round.
Then an inspiration came slowly born.
Count your many friendships. Make a bright, new morn.

Counting YOU, a friend, so faithful and true.
Counting your kindness and all you do.
Keeping me hopeful, refreshing my soul,
You make me happy, and you make me whole.

(excerpt taken with permission from a poem by Sandi Hughes)

What a beautiful way to start the holiday season, with love for each other. Our children are so excited this time of year. It's such a joy to watch their faces. The library is all decked out with Christmas books. It is my hope everyone will enjoy love, peace and the hope that Jesus brings to each of us.

Merry Christmas,
Barbara Bell, Media Director

Dear Care Team,

Thank you all so much for such a wonderful blessing you were to our parents. It's tough being shut in and receiving visits, food, baskets, flowers and most of all fellowship from kind neighbors, Shirley and Bruce Lewis, were truly a treat and much appreciated.

Love and Prayers,
Sandra and Joe Bartell
and Harriette and Doug Jamerson

Dear Pastor Bradbury and Bethel Family,

Thank you so much for your kindness, prayers and time spent ministering to our parents, Anne and Irving Jamerson. It would please them greatly to see that you are still using the gold cross that was given in honor of their baby, Dennis Sterling. We all truly appreciate everything that was done to help us honor our parents during their Celebration of Life Services.

Love and Prayers

Dear Bethel Family,

I have been so overwhelmed by the love and desire of God's people to minister to my needs during this surgery recovery period. Thank you for the calls, texts, cards, flowers, visits and prayers. I can't express the depths of gratitude I feel. You are the hands and feet of our Lord.

Be Blessed,

By Heather Kerns
Preschool Director

The excitement is in the air with Christmas quickly approaching! The children and staff are working hard to complete their holiday units before our Christmas break begins. There are so many fun projects and lessons to complete! This is such a magical time of year for children and adults alike, and we will be focusing on the true meaning of the season in our preschool; Jesus.

I would like to say thank you to all my preschool families who helped with our outreach program this year. The idea of doing unto others is sometimes a difficult concept for small children to grasp. To help them to understand that it is just as important to give as it is to receive, the preschool participated in the Powhatan Christmas Mother program to help assist local low-income families provide Christmas. We were able to contribute SO many items that will certainly bring smiles to children's faces on Christmas morning. Our preschool collected children's toothbrushes, toothpaste, Play Doh, crayons, books, stickers, bubbles, and candy canes. We are so thankful for the support of our families.

Our preschool is elated to host our first-annual Parents Christmas Shopping Day on Friday, December 3rd. Parents can drop off their Bethel Preschool students on Friday morning, December 3rd at 9:00 and go Christmas shopping, wrap gifts, or just enjoy a moment of solitude before the mayhem of the holiday season. While here, the children will make Christmas crafts, make and eat Christmas treats, and play together. Parents will pick up students at 12:00 pm. We are hopeful that this will be a great success that will start a new tradition in our school.

Our annual school Christmas party will be held on Thursday, December 16th. We will be celebrating Polar Express style with pajamas, a reading of the book Polar Express, individual train cars decorated by our students, a hot cocoa bar, warm cookies, and lots of Christmas cheer. 'We Believe' here at Bethel Preschool and are so excited to spread the magic of the Christmas season with our students before they leave for break.

Our preschool will be closed December 20th through December 31st for Christmas Break. We look forward to welcoming back our students and staff on Monday, January 3rd, 2022. The Bethel Preschool teachers and I would like to wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Bethel Care Team

Goodness knows, where did the year go? It seems like the months fly by as do the years and here we are ready to begin the Christmas season again, and to everyone, have a very Merry Christmas.

My thoughts remain of how busy we all seem to be in so many ways, think of how it was for Mary and Joseph and the shepherds and the Wise men who traveled by the Star that guided them on the long journey across the desert to become that special night that we all celebrate each Christmas Eve. They had patience, they had endurance, they had a purpose in their hearts to fulfill the plan of God to send his son to earth in the form of a tiny baby. Today we seem to lack anything but those attributes, we are too busy, in a rush over everything, buying, cooking, planning, decorating, everything but resting on the word and remembering the real meaning of this blessed of all holidays. We must take "time" to take that long slow journey as a gift to ourselves, our lives are a gift from God and our gift to him is what we do with those lives. Our Care Team strives to take "time" for those who maybe cannot get out and enjoy the beauty of the holiday decorations, or the festive times other's share, everyone of them are precious members of our church family and they will be visited and remembered this month for sure. Pray for them and for the Care Team and for our beloved church family as we celebrate this most special time of year.

Sadly, we again remember our dear Mrs. J. Mrs. Jamerson, who recently passed, she was a wonderful, caring person who still wanted to hear of the activities of our church and would discuss the people and special times she and Irving enjoyed when they were active members. We will miss her. Merry Christmas and God bless us as we take care of each other.

FUN

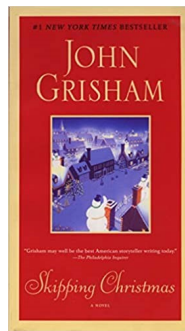

JUST FOR FUN

Can you answer these Christmas trivia questions?

1. What classic Christmas song was sung in two Christmas movies (hint: it was introduced by Bing Crosby in the 1942 movie Holiday Inn).
2. Who wrote the endearing story/poem "Twas the Night Before Christmas"?
3. The story "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" was published in 1939 and the classic song sung by Gene Autry came out in 1949. In what year did the classic cartoon make its first appearance?
4. Who wrote "Silent Night"? When/where was it first performed?
5. Why do we hang Christmas wreaths?
6. How do you make snow cream?
7. Christmas cards are still popular today. When did that tradition begin?

Library Book of the Month

Imagine a year without Christmas. No crowded malls, no corny office parties, no fruitcakes, no unwanted presents. That's just what Luther and Nora Krank have in mind when they decide that, just this once, they'll skip the holiday altogether. But, as this weary couple is about to discover, skipping Christmas brings enormous consequences – and isn't half as easy as they'd imagined. Skipping Christmas offers a hilarious look at the chaos and frenzy that have become part of our holiday tradition. Look for it on the library table in the People of Hope Center.

Pregnancy Help Center

Brenda Peck volunteers at the Pregnancy Help Center in Chesterfield. She found that right now they have need of diapers (newborn and up to 2 years old) and baby formula. If you would like to help please bring your donations to church and leave them in the corner of the People of Hope next to Charlotte's Food Pantry. If you have any questions, please see Brenda Peck.

Newsletter Deadline

The newsletter deadline for the January Outreach will be December 10th. Starting with the information for the February Outreach the deadline will be the 15th of each month. Thanks so much for helping with the early deadlines.

1. "White Christmas" was introduced in the movie Holiday Inn and was re-used in the 1954 movie White Christmas.
2. Clement C. Moore wrote the poem. It was first published in 1823 in the Troy Sentinel newspaper in New York.
3. The cartoon first appeared on television on December 6, 1964.
4. The young priest, Joseph Mohr, wrote the lyrics; he asked his musician friend, Franz Gruber, to compose the melody. Together they sang it for the first time on Christmas Eve, 1818, in Salzburg with Mohr playing his guitar as the church organ had been damaged by flooding.
5. The custom began in the 16th century as Europeans in the north and east trimmed their trees and used the excess branches to form circles or wreaths. Of course, the circle represents eternity and hope.
6. Gather 8 cups of snow, add 1 teaspoon vanilla extract that has been mixed with 1 cup of milk and 1/3 cup of sugar. (You can substitute the milk mixture with sweetened condensed milk). Stir. Snow cream can be kept in a freezer for up to week.
7. Information varies, but arguably, began in 1843 in London, England by Sir Henry Cole. Early cards typically depicted flowers, fairies, and whimsical designs. In America, early cards were printed by Louis Prang. His cards were detailed, colorful works of art and highly collectible today.
