Have you ever watched an artist work? I had the opportunity to do just that when I spent a couple of hours with Wray Brown one Tuesday afternoon. Wray was born and raised in Chesterfield County and was in the first graduating class of Clover Hill High School. Wray and his lovely wife Susan are long time members of Bethel and Wray is an artist. Wray "turns bowls," meaning that he takes a piece of wood, places it on a lathe and skillfully shapes the wood into a bowl, or vase, or a plate or even a Christmas ornament. Once the piece is finished, Susan's talents often come into play as she is able to artistically arrange some flowers in a vase and really bring the piece to life.

Wray's passion for woodworking began at Stockton Baptist Church when he was only a boy. There was a gentleman in the church who showed a group of boys how to build a shoe rack. Wray got to sand and glue the wood and he discovered he really enjoyed working with wood. Wray first learned about turning bowls at Elkhart Junior High School but he didn't start doing it seriously until after he retired from Dupont after 41 years of service.

Wray gave me a fascinating demonstration of how the process of turning bowls works. He had me choose a piece of wood and I picked out a small piece of Maple from his wood pile. He set out to make a vase. Wray cut the wood and placed it on the lathe and then I watched in amazement as he skillfully began to remove the bark. Wray would often stop and change the tool he was using or make an adjustment to the machine to get the angle of the tool just right. As the vase took shape he stopped and pointed out imperfections in the wood. There were worm holes, black fungus spots and a knot. He told me how these imperfections will ultimately give the vase its character. As he was shaping the vase I asked him how he knew what cuts to make in shaping the vase. He said, "The wood has a mind of it's own and it speaks to me and tells me what it needs to become." I asked, "How does it speak to you?" He said, "Good question.

I'm not altogether sure. It's a challenge. You have to watch the grain and get the feel of the wood and, if you pay close attention, the wood will let you know if it doesn't want to be shaped in a certain way. This is why every piece is unique; that's why I'm not a very good duplicator." Then Wray showed me what he watches when he cuts. He doesn't watch the knife blade as it cuts, instead he watches the other side of the piece of wood and sees the image of what the knife has already cut and that helps to guide him to know how to continue to shape the wood.

As I watched Wray apply his craft it struck me that the process of turning bowls is a lot like becoming a disciple of Christ. God sees in us the image of what we can become and when we commit to following Christ we all start off pretty raw, but God begins the process of peeling back the bark of everything in us that is not of Christ. Then there are those imperfections that Wray spoke about. He said, "Imperfections gives the finished piece character." That's true for us. Something we might perceive as an imperfection, a flaw, or a past failure, God can actually use those things to bring us to a place of humility and ultimately work through those things to actually bless other people. Our imperfections and past failures can become a beautiful source of blessing.

Finally, there's one last thing Wray said that I loved. He said, "I'm not a great duplicator." What an interesting comment. I think that's true of God. God doesn't seem to do much duplication. Instead of duplication, God is simply into creation. Each one of us are incredibly unique, a one of a kind work of art, just like Wray's bowls. As we go forward in faith together let's give thanks that God doesn't require perfection. Thank you Lord that you actually work through our imperfections and past failures as you continue to shape us into a unique work of art

"Creative Lent" by Gayle Taylor

It is difficult to believe that Easter is one month away. It seems like we just celebrated Christmas! Yet in between Christmas and Easter, we enter the season of Lent, the forty-day period (minus Sundays) that begins on Ash Wednesday. What are we supposed to do during Lent? The general idea is to give up something or to include a new spiritual practice so that we can focus on the time of Christ's suffering until His resurrection. In reality, we can never imitate or reenact Christ's suffering, but we can strive to find ways that help us to confront our sinfulness and to thank God for our salvation. For the seven Fridays between Ash Wednesday and Easter, plan on participating in these seven creative ways to enter into a sacred and reflective time:

March 8: On March 8, Bethel will host a Painting the Psalms class from 10:00 a.m.-12:00 noon in the Parlor. No painting experience is needed! Bring your favorite Psalm to the class and all other materials will be provided for you. The idea is to fellowship while creating a unique piece of artwork that expresses your meditation about your favorite Psalm. Please call the church or contact Gayle Taylor to sign up for this special event!

March 15: Practice forgiveness. Lent offers the perfect time to make amends with someone with whom you have a strained relationship. Matthew 5: 23-24 "So when you are offering your gift at the altar, if you remember that your brother or sister has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother or sister, and then come and offer your gift." If you need help with this, read When Forgiveness Doesn't Make Sense by Robert Jeffress.

March 22: Set aside time for meditation: play soft music and read an inspirational poem. Here is a site with inspirational quotes to contemplate: http://www.divinemercy.opoka.org/inspirational_quotes_for_the_lenten_season.pdf

March 29: Volunteer your time/food/clothes/gas cards at a local charity such as Blessing Warriors.

April 5: Light a candle and read Chapter 1 of the Gospel of John. Focus on how you can be the light of Christ. Pray for your neighbors, your local community, or your co-workers.

April 12: Fast for a 24-hour period (abstain from food, social media, or a controlling habit).

April 19: Good Friday Lenten

Lunch. Join us in the People of Hope Center for a devotional time and lunch of soup and salad from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Please call the church office or contact Gayle Taylor to sign up for this event!

that bears the image of Christ. I want to thank Wray for the gift of his time and I'd like to share one thing he left me with. I shared with him how impressed I was with his art and his talent. He said, "Everyone has a God given talent or skill, why not use it?" Why not indeed! May God bless Wray and Susan Brown and may God continue to bless Bethel Baptist Church. Amen.

Preschool Director

March is roaring in like a lion and with it the crazy weather! Our Bethel Preschool children are having trouble deciding how to dress for school because one day it is warm and the next day it is cold. We are hoping the Leprechauns will bring Spring to us soon!

Open registration began February 1st for the 2019/2020 school year for our church families and students of the preschool. Registration became open to the public on February 15th. We are steadily receiving registrations making our new school year look very strong. If you know of anyone who is looking for a preschool, please be sure to mention us. Spots are filling up fast!

The preschool always likes to honor our parents so we will be having a special night planned for our Dads' and Dad – like figures. Our annual Dads' night will be held on Thursday, March 7th from 7:00p.m. – 8:00 p.m. Each class will be doing a special presentation for the men along with a craft. Refreshments will follow in the Parlor. Just a reminder that the Preschool will be having their monthly fundraiser at Chick-fil-A on Wednesday March 20th from 5:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. Please come out for good food and fun while supporting the Preschool. Don't forget to mention "Spirit Night"!

To help our rising kindergartners get acclimated to a huge change in their lives, the preschool has scheduled a special field trip to Flat Rock Elementary School on Wednesday, March 20th via a Powhatan County School bus. This exciting trip will be to tour the school and experience a real Kindergarten classroom.

Another fun event scheduled for March is our annual spring pictures. Michelle Proctor from Michelle Proctor Photography will be taking spring pictures with our preschoolers on Thursday, March 21st. The kids get so excited to get all dressed up and smile for the camera! The Pre-K classes will be having a special visitor from PDM, Inc. coming on Wednesday, March 27th to do a special creative movement – theatre class! This 30-minute class will open our children's eyes to the wonderful world of movement and imagination!

As always, my staff and I would like to thank you again for all the support you give to the Preschool. You are the reason we are the program we are today!

Painting the Psalms March 8, 10 a.m. to noon

On March 8, a Painting the Psalms class will be held in the Parlor from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. No painting experience is needed! Please bring a copy of your favorite Psalm to the class. We'll provide the art supplies! You will be guided to create a unique piece of artwork that expresses your meditation about your favorite Psalm. Please call the church or contact Gayle Taylor to sign up for this special event!

Bethel Care Team

Hello everyone!!!

The year 2019 is rushing on and here we are in March, the month that brings us officially into Springtime, Daylight Savings Time and we celebrate St Patrick's Day. It's a happy month, surely one that keeps us on our toes, there can be snow, there is always windy days and there is the blessing of more sunshine and longer days. God has blessed us with "weather" that brings interest into our lives, it makes us stay inside on some days and rejoice and enjoy a nice walk on others. Whatever the day, let us rejoice and be glad in it.

I came across this Bible verse that describes our Care Team in many ways. Let me share it with you. 1 Corinthians 12:6 (NIRV) There are different ways the SPIRIT works. But the same God is working in all these ways and in all people.

We serve in our own ways, some people are good with conversation and just a little visit, others are the most wonderful cooks and can take someone in need of a meal a real blessing. We share times of gathering together and discussing those that have other needs and we have others who step up and donate furniture, others who lift and deliver that furniture to someone who might have a need. What would we do without friends who will help if we just ask. I believe that was the message Todd delivered a couple of weeks ago in our service, God just wants us to ASK for whatever we need in our lives, for ourselves or for others. I want to thank so many people who are always thinking of ways to help our committee. You are all such a blessing. My prayer going forward is continuing to serve the Lord with gladness and that we all feel the blessings of service to others.

Shirley Lewis/Team Lead
